DEC 10, 1944 - MAY 17, 2019

Jephtha Marchant Gates, Sr., 74, of Memphis, Tennessee, crossed over on Friday, May 17, 2019. Anyone who knew him felt his amazing spirit. His kindness and quick wit held everyone's attention. Jep was passionate about duck hunting, conservation and soil health. Jep graduated from Mississippi State with a Bachelor's degree in Agriculture and a Masters in Entomology and Weed Science. He was an Agronomist working in Arkansas for 25 years. He then moved to Australia, creating Bio Ag Pty. Ltd. with his biological products to begin improving our earth's soil. He spent 15 wonderful years there before retiring in 2014. He was a member of the Entomological Society of Mississippi, named Cotton Consultant of the year in 1982, a Rotarian and a longtime member of the Episcopal Church; but most importantly, an expert duck caller. He is survived by his wife, Zada Hart Gates, his puppy dog, Peanut, his daughter, Princess Rose Windham (Tony), his son, Jephtha M. Gates, Jr., two grandchildren, Tanner Matthew Windham and Madison Claire Windham, his brother, William Lake Gates, Jr. (Paula), brother-in-laws, Charles K. Hart and Joe Harris, III. (Claire), and many nieces and nephews. The family will receive relatives and friends on Wednesday, May 22 from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. at Memorial Park Funeral Home, 5668 Poplar Avenue in Memphis. The funeral will be held on Thursday, May 23 at 1:00 p.m. at Calvary Episcopal Church, 102 North Second Street in Memphis. The burial will immediately follow at Memorial Park Cemetery. I would like to offer my condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Jephtha Marchant Gates, Sr. John 5:28 "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." Lazarus' resurrection and that of others recorded in the Bible let us know what will take place on a global scale in the new world, a new earth.
