To lose a man is sorrowful, to lose a Great Man is devastating .I believe he leaves his legacy in his wake thru his children and grandchildren. What an honor each of you now bear of continuing to carry the yolk of of a Poppa who expects you to remember how to be a fisherman, a husband, a hunter, a father and much, much more. You are all in our thoughts.

Rest well my old friend. I worked with David long ago. He was a dear friend to me and I loved him so. No better man lived. He has joined his beloved wife and his maker. One day I will be with him again.

My prayers and thoughts are with David's family. I have known David all my life as Beth's oldest brother. Last year he was a birthday wish to me on Facebook. He contacted me and we exchanged phone numbers. He was a very kind man and I really enjoyed sharing old times. He told me all about his family and his love for all of you. RIP David. Well done!

I am truly sorry to hear about Mr.Lyons passing. I was lucky to have met him and Molly in my short time with them. We talked for hours and looked at pictures of his family, but mostly his lovely grandkids. He always welcomed me into his home and I will cherish the talks and stories he shared. Rest well Mr. Lyons, you're with your wife now. You will be missed a great deal.

I am truly sad to hear of Mr. Lyons passing. I was lucky to have met him and Molly in my short time with them. He was always nice and welcomed me into his home. We talked for hours and he would show me pictures of his family. He loved showing his grandbabies and talking about them. Rest well Mr. Lyons, you're with your wife now and you will always be remembered by me.
