Jesus compared death to a sleep from which one is awakened by resurrection. The account reads: "Lazarus our friend has fallen asleep, but I am traveling there to awaken him.' The disciples then said to him: 'Lord, if he is sleeping, he will get well.' Jesus, however, had spoken about his death. But they imagined he was speaking about taking rest in sleep. Then Jesus said to them plainly: 'Lazarus has died.'" (John 11:11-14) By resurrecting Lazarus, Jesus gave him back his life and reunited him with his family. What a marvelous gift Jesus gave to that family!
