From our first conversation when meeting Louise at the Parkview several years ago to our last visit with her in October we have continually been inspired and touched by her selfless and giving love. Louise always lifted up the Lord in her conversations. If you knew Louise, you knew that her life was about giving God glory and thanks for His goodness and faithfulness to her and her family. Louise adored her family. She would light up a room when she started talking about them and their fun family get-togethers with her. She always commented on how good her family was to her, how she never lacked for anything because of them, and how proud she was of them. They brought her such joy. Louise spoke so sweetly of her church family and how faithful and meaningful their continual out reach was to her through the years. Louise was a woman of great courage, authenticity, kindness, without guile, and always encouraging. We thank God that we have had the joy of sharing life with her here on earth and know that we will be with her throughout eternity in Heaven because Jesus made us family. Her family is in our prayers and we thank them for sharing Louise with us these last several years at The Parkview. We are better and life has been richer as a result of Louise being in our lives. God is faithful – as Louise loved to say.
