To Betty, My family and I have had a close friendship for close to 50 years. You and I have shared moments of pain and moments of joy. To hear your voice again a couple of weeks ago brought tears of joy to my eyes. I'll miss the exchanging of birthday and Christmas gifts. I'll miss hearing you affectionately calling me, Wess and calling my husband Brother Wesson. Not many people understand true sisterly friendship today like we had. You beat me going home but I'll see you one day. You deserve the Lord's rest. Bishop Wesson and I say farewell to our friend..To Latasha, Kim, Keisha, Daniel, & Ladrina Get closer together like your mom raised you. Love each other and you'll carry out her legacy. You're in my prayers. We love you all.

The life she lead was an example to all. She was warm, polite, and kind as far as I can recall. She didn't have a mean bone in her body. Doing God's will is what she taught me.. I've fallen short of God's will a time or two But my mom never held that against me She loved me through and through..

I'm sending my sincere condolences to the Boone family and friends. This is one of life's greatest challenges that we have to face. Jesus said, did, and promised something that gives us comfort and hope. In the Bible at John 11:11-14, Jesus likened death to sleep. This comfort us in two ways: 1) we are assured by those words that our loved ones are not suffering or in pain. 2) If a person is just sleeping, he will wake up! Notice what Jesus does next at John 11:43-44, this is amazing! Jesus promised us something similar at John 5:28-29, what a beautiful hope we have! If you would like to know more details about this, please download a free copy of the brochure Good News from God @ Jw.org and read lesson 6 along with the Bible
