I would like to add my condolences to the Endicott family and friends. Unfortunately, losing our loved ones to death is something that is all too common to mankind. However, the Bible speaks of a future that can give us real hope and comfort. At Isaiah 25:8, God says he will "swallow up death forever" and "wipe away tears from all faces." How wonderful those promises are, and we can be confident that they will be fulfilled soon.
