Chet, wish I had known about your service, I only take the Sunday paper. Thinking back, as your neighbor, I was always amazed at how you could work in the yard all day, non-stop ! Thoughts and prayers for your family. MS. Buffy

How I loved Mr. Chet! For so many years I lived and breathed dance from the time I was 6 until adulthood. Mr. Chet was an important presence in my life – almost like a father to me. I felt like the dance studio was my second home. He was also my very first boss. Firm yet compassionate too! So many life lessons and fond memories from my dance experience–lifelong friendships too! My friendship with Anne of 50 yrs or so began with dance. So thank you Mr. Chet for everything! Rest in peace! May God comfort and bless you, dear Anne, and your family during this time. Love you much!
