Miss Pat touched the lives of so many young people. She is a huge part of childhood memories for my two daughters and our family. She not only taught them to point their toes and shuffle-ball-change, she gave them life lessons on self-confidence, poise, and how to be gracious. We will never forget her productions at the old Ellis Auditorium. It was the highlight of our year! Our thoughts and prayers are with Mark and the family. Miss Pat will forever be in our hearts.

Patricia was a dear friend thru Gordon and Humes Schools then at Memphis State as a sorority sister. We shared many good times, and I knew her parents, Stanley and Louise, having visited in their homes.

Miss Pat had such an impact on my life. I started lessons at 3 years old and took tap ballet, and jazz classes until I was 12. I remember the old fashioned coke machine in the entry room...and a recital that involved a bunch of little girls singing about (and wearing) a yellow polka dot bikini. My life was shaped in those nine years and I still love to dance (albeit a little slower) 40 years later. Miss Pat will always be a part of my life and I wish her a wonderful journey to the beyond. I'm so grateful that her friends and family shared her with us (her dancers) for so many years.

Miss Patricia was the best dance teacher. My daughter took from her for many years. She and her mother were just the best!
