Shirley Clark and my Mom, Nathelle Greenleaf, were best friends from their days as neighbors in Pauma Valley, CA. One would be hard pressed to find two more elegant ladies; each with their own distinctive style. Their friendship endured moves to different cities and even states but in every case they were just a phone call away to recount so many happy memories. Our family was certainly enriched for knowing Shirley. Now these two special people are enjoying the ultimate heavenly experience. Sending love and prayers to all of Shirley's family.
