My prayers are with your family during this difficult period. Take comfort in Jesus' words at John 5:28, 29, "The time is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

Marcelle Farrow is my aunt and friend who I will greatly miss. She always accepted me and welcomed me into her home. She always found a way to find some form of praise for me and her generosity and love meant a great deal to me. I hated to see her struggles these last years of her life. After surviving three bouts of cancer and the chemo, she lived with the effects of treatment on her aging body. Her mind and spirit never failed to be strong. She was never a passive apathetic person. She spoke up with tact and grace and some force if she thought the situation called for it. Her spirit lives on in my memory and I am thankful for the times we had together.
