Bruce and I worked together for over three years. His humor, humility, work ethic and bigger than life personality always added to my personal experiences with him. We played together in his club's member - guest golf outing one year. Did pretty well too until I blew a couple of shots. Typical of Bruce (who LOVED to win) he shrugged it off and commented on how well we had done to get that far. Come to think of it though, he never invited me back. ?? I had already missed working with Bruce and sharing life stories. Now I'm just going to miss him a little longer. Michael Page

Sherry, Bryant, and Courtney – I am so sorry for your loss. I wanted to thank you for the time that Bruce invested into the kids of Troop 50, Den 7. Bruce is an important part of our memories in Clayton's scout life. Bruce was ALWAYS such a positive man, we really appreciate that he used his "volunteer time" to impact these young men. Thank you for supporting that. Blessings to you all

Our hearts go out to the Bruce's family – we were privileged to have known and worked with Bruce for the last several years. Our experience, insight, and compassion for caring for seniors is a credit to him, and our lives were richer given his sense of humor and his amazing view of the world. This was such a shock, and it is truly a loss that the senior care industry and for the world will miss the benefit of this incredible guy. Allan Brown (Dallas, TX)
