John Hollingsworth posted:

Paige was the greatest daughter ever to her father , Gene . Gene would speak so fondly and proudly of Paige and her accomplishments. Gene stated that Paige graduated from the University of Texas . He was so proud of how hard she worked and her success at her endeavors. Paige was also a very fine photographer. Working with Gene for 28 years allowed me to understand how important Paige was to her father. He spoke of her and his son Rusty with regularity. Soon you felt like you knew Paige and Rusty almost like they were your kids. We shared stories about our children as they were so close in age and activities. It was truly a pleasure to know Gene and his wife Carolyn as they were so proud of those children. It's always a pleasure to experience your kids and your friends kids as they grow up to become responsible and accomplished adults. Paige was a strong, successful, and known as a professional with great respect. Paige was the example of a young lady who strived to be the best. She was also accomplished as a photographer with great skill. Paige will be missed by so many who had the pleasure of knowing her. It's easy to understand why her father loved her so ! Paige, you will be missed !In Heartfelt Memory John Hollingsworth
