Words cannot express how heavy my heart is losing you. You were the sweetest in law I have ever known, so kind, caring, giving and loving. All the gifts you sent us was so overwhelming we laughed at some, treasured some will always remember the spirit in which you left behind. The family misses you already. The tears that flowed for hours lead into days. I wish I would have done more for you in giving back. You taught me a lesson that I will carry out today. You have influenced me to be a better person. I will take good care of Gary as he will continue to call me mom. Crystal loved you dearly and always spoke highly of you. Chasity has locked your love and memories inside her heart and she will always love you. Kolby loved you and will never forget his special nana and everything you did together. You were love by so many friends & family. RIP Lynn Shelton. We rejoice in celebrating your life now and forever. I love you.
