Mary Ann was such a wonderful person. We were great friends for many years and lost touch during the last ten years due to life's twist and turns. I had the privilege of knowing Mary Ann only a short time. In this time I witnessed a strong, loving, compassionate, beautiful woman. She invited me into her life, we shared holiday dinners and she treated me as family. Her beautiful smile was present daily, even when she didn't feel good. She adored her husband like I've never seen, and he cherished her dearly. I will never forget her Love and kindness to me, I miss her already. Cindy L.
