Gerry Duff posted:

Mary's parents were moving into their home on Laurie Lane at the same time we were moving into ours on Conwell in the summer of 1956. The big trees in front yard were placed there when they were about 6 feet tall. I met Mary when she visited her parents and consoled her when they left this earth for eternal life with God that they firmly believed in. I had short visits with Mary as she reared her children, lost her husband, and reared a grandchild. She always asked for my prayers that she would do a good job. I have been unable to visit for a few years but I do pray for Eternal Rest for her. I will miss her. Gerry Duff, friend and neighbor
