I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Mrs. Bailey. I was a friend of her daughter, Donna, when I grew up in Cleveland a street over from them. I am sure heaven is a happy place now as she got to join her children. Many prayers and thoughts for her family.

Aunt Jo was full of fun. She always had a smile and a song. When my family came home to Memphis from Oak Harbor Washington there for sure would be a skib bo game in the plan of events and Aunt Jo, Aunt Mildred, Elsie Gore (my grandmother) were for sure in attendance. I am thank full for these memories. I was able to visit with Aunt Jo November 2015 with my mom Hazel Addington, my cousins Toni and Tara.
