I am so very, very sorry that I am just finding out this sad news of Robert's son, Thor Godsey. I met Thor only once, but I felt like, before Robert passed, that I was in some way, getting to know Thor. Robert and I took Thor, years and years ago, to a Redbirds game. Just like his dad, Thor was shy but curious, energetic but calm, intelligent beyond measure, loving, filled with wit, and gentle. He was also a great climber. Thor hopped right up the climbing wall that day—his father looking after him at every step. I'm so sorry you're gone, Thor. I'd hoped to have a chance to meet you as an adult. I pray that whatever is in the next life you're there with your dad, Doc, and sweet Norma Jean. Much love, Eliza

Thor, I still can't grasp that you're gone, such a bright and handsome young man. Seems like yesterday you'd come to the house and hang with Ty and Cody. You guys drove me crazy sometimes and worried me to pieces other times. I wouldn't trade it for the world though. I loved all you boys hanging around. You all certainly brought joy to my heart and a smile to my face watching you guys grow up. My heart goes out to your mother and all your family in this so difficult and hard time to understand. Rest In Peace sweet Thor. Love, Mandi

It's still weird to process all this, but you will forever be remembered and loved brother! If it wasn't for you I would have never started rapping and freestyling! I'll never forget the first track we cut with Bledsoe and how hype we got about it, along with many other songs! There were many nights spent at your house recording music! Also the night my Jeep burnt down in your drive way and how wild it was, then you, me, Michael, and a few others went and got a hotel room and had a good time! Through thick and thin you were my ride or die and my brother, I will always cherish the times we had together! I promise I will do my part in making sure we get your album out of your music, since you always talked about dropping an album! LOVE YOU FOREVER BIG HOMIE!

I'm so glad I had a chat with Thor at Patrick and Nicole's wedding. As a little guy he seemed so handsome, shy and polite – and as I talked with him a few years later I could see he had never changed. What a great loss he is to his family. He will be missed greatly.

Kena, I'm so, so sorry to hear about Thor. I remember how you converted the attic into his own, private space in that little house on Young Ave where you cut my hair. He seemed to really enjoy it and I thought it was such a creative, nice thing for you to do for him. My thoughts are with you and Morgan Nicole. Allison Potter

Bless my lovely sister Morgan Nicole and her mother Kena. I never personally knew Thor, but I was always aware of him as a person, as my sister's brother. How we were born only a few months apart and our mothers bonded over it. I wish I had met Thor, because Nicole always spoke so fondly of her little brother. Looking at his photos I see a soft-hearted, talented, sweet guy who was loved by so many... may he rest easy and live on in the afterworld, happy and prosperous. RIP Thor, we'll meet someday.

Kena, I cannot express the feeling I felt when I heard the news of Thor. My heart aches for you and your family. When we lose a loved one here on earth, we gain an angel in heaven that watches over us. May you take comfort in knowing you have an angel, Thor, watching over you now. Little note - Not - how he did die, but how he lived his life. Thor loved his family and especially his mom Kena. Love to you and your family, Jenelle

Thor was a cool kid I remember goofing with him during our Snowden days. I also remember how chill he was when we reunited during adulthood. To his family and closest friends I can't imagine the grief you must be feeling but I know Thor would want us all to just celebrate him and life. May the gods bring you peace in the midst of this storm.
