The greatest man I've ever known. He didn't know this , because I never said anything about it, but he taught me that love transcends all things here. To put aside, obvious differences and, connect with another on a level, that can't possibly be explained with just mere words. He taught me that, anything is possible for anyone walking this Earth, if you put your mind to it , and believe in yourself. He was always a happy, fun-loving soul, who had a heart of gold. As he kicks back in Heaven with his mom and dad, he can rest easy knowing, that his teachings, his care, the great memories we all shared together, and most importantly, his love, will live on in all of us. I was proud to call him my dad, and I'll continue to do so. Godspeed and Roll Tide!!!, Richard. Till I see you again....Christopher Jackson- Your loving son.
