My condolences to Donna's family. We are never prepared for a friend's death; death is always a shock. Donna was a very special person, my children, Mary Ann and Toby knew Donna and her family, and less than two weeks ago my daughter and I were discussing Donna and I am so glad now that I mentioned this conversation to Donna telling her how much Mary Ann still loved her. Rest in Piece, Donna; you will be missed.

I am so sorry for your loss. Donna and I were inseparable friends growing up. I loved her like a sister. I cherished her friendship all of these years. Time and distance kept us apart but we were always in touch and maintained a steady communication through Facebook. I am so very sad and heartbroken.
