My deepest sympathy for the loss of a Great Man and baseball coach, that coached me when I was young for Ardmore Baptist Church. I thought the world of him. He was a great friend to my Mom, Marie Taylor. Sincerely, Gene Taylor

My heartfelt condolences and prayers are with Rachael and all of the Bowen family at this time of sorrow. I had the pleasure of meeting Joe at work one day. Rachael introduced him to everyone. He was such a happy and upbeat man. God picked a beautiful flower for his garden on January 3, 2017. Take your well deserved rest, Joe. Remember family, "Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal." You will always have your precious memories of Joe in your heart. Be blessed.Linda Jackson
