I have a favorite memory of David. I also have a video of this on a CD somewhere. I remember him in the gazebo on Brookfield, playing Rocky Top on his fiddle. (my daughter, Natalie, was going to UT at the time. Loved it!

Some 37 years ago when my son was born my big brother David visited. He told me he would provide the "Three 'Rs" for me and that I would handle the three "Rs" for my son Billy. He then gave me a Robe, a Rocker and a bouquet with Roses. This is my memory of his love and I will cherish and love him always.
