Prayers are sent for peace. I have wonderful memories of growing up with the Camburn family. I enjoyed all of the visits, both in Memphis and on the farm. Love to all. We are saddened by the lost of Shirley, but she is enjoying Heaven now.

I loved Shirley like a sister. I will always remember her Thanksgiving dinners with all the family. She put us all in the mood to celebrate with her pilgrim dress. She was a beautiful person, kind, loving and giving. We had some great times together. She is at home now with her dear Lord. I miss her so much. I pray for God's peace on each member of her family.
