I met Parker through Jackson Cooper the first time I really was around him it was the day of their senior prom my daughter Taylor was Jackson's girlfriend they all met up to take photos it took me forever to get a decent picture because Parker wouldn't stop telling jokes, making silly faces, has I became aware of over the last year or so this was just Parker it was who he was, but I finally got a few good ones I don't think i have never seen him without a smile on his face...I can't imagine being in his parents shoes right now no parent should ever have to go through this, I am truly sorry for your loss he was a great friend and the always happiest kid in the group by far...

It is always so distressing to hear of the death of someone so young. Yet, it is comforting to know that our God never intended humans to experience such pain. How we look forward to His promise at Isaiah 25:8 to swallow up death forever and wipe away tears from all faces. Until that time, may the words of Psalms 147:3 which states, "He heals the broken hearted and binds up their wounds", assure you of God's love and tender care for you at this time.
