Jim And Floy Pike posted:

Dear Larry, Cindy, and Jan, Now that the worst is over, the best of Jean remains for all of you to celebrate. Her nurturing spirit held you close. Her pride was constant for each one of you, sons-in-law and grandchildren, because of your individual personalities, talents, and accomplishments. Her love for people was engaging and authentic: her friendships became long and enduring. Her cheerful disposition made her company easy-going and relaxed even in her latter days. Larry, you were her rock, her protector, and her love for 64 years. And, Judah, you will need to be told how much your Great grandmother would have been thrilled by your sight, by your touch, and how precious you would be to her just as your family before you has been. Lovingly, Jim and Floy
