Virginia Ann Curry

FEB 22, 1929 - JUL 14, 2016

Virginia Ann Furbish Curry, 87, of Memphis died peacefully surrounded by family and friends on July 14, 2016. She was born February 22, 1929. She was preceded in death by James Dudley Curry, her husband of 64 years. She is survived by daughter Patricia Curry Simmons (Sam) of Ridgeland, MS, and son William Reily Curry of Memphis. Ann was a graduate of Central High School and Memphis State University, where she earned both a bachelor degree and master's degree in education. She was a charter member of Christ United Methodist Church in Memphis and served faithfully in numerous ministry roles that touched the lives of many. Ann taught four and five year olds at Christ United Methodist's Day School for over a decade. She later became a member of Germantown Methodist Church and remained active in Community Bible Study. Her supreme delight was bringing joy to children, whether in church classes, through community service, or in the homes of neighbors. During her final year of life, Ann made Heritage at Irene Woods (Memphis) her new home. She was loved by staff and residents alike. Her smile and laughter brought joy to everyone around her. The family will receive friends from 10:30-11:30 am on Monday, July 18 immediately followed by funeral services at Memorial Park Funeral Home. The family wishes to thank the staff of Crossroads Hospice and Heritage at Irene Woods for the loving care they provided Ann during her final years. Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to Memorial Park Funeral Home, 5668 Poplar Ave, Memphis, TN 901-767-8930 "Celebrating Life... Behind the Stone Wall".

I did not meet Ann, but heard about her life through Sam and Trish. The mark of a person is the people they influenced. Trish's life is a testimony to her mother's impact. We celebrate her life and the ripple effects of her influence.

Ann (and Dud) were good friends of my parents for many, many years. I believe they were in each other's weddings too. My parents were Barbara Sue and Charlie Dando. I remember when we kids were young, we spent a lot of time with our parents at each other's houses. I am so sorry for your loss. I know how hard it is to lose your mother. I do find some comfort in thinking of the 4 of them being together again, though. Cindy Dando

I was so blessed to have had Ann as one of my neighbors at the Heritage of Irene Woods. In the dining room, she would come by in her wheelchair in her last days and take my hand and squeeze it with that great big smile on her face. I will miss you, but I know we will see each other again and will be in eternity forever and forever.
