I worked with Robbie for 2 years at Mercantile Bank in Little Rock. Robbie taught me to always be myself and not dwell of what others thought of me. We kept in touch occasionally through the years and I regret that I just learned of her passing after checking her Facebook page. Despite a tough exterior, Robbie was a woman of kind heart and sensitivity. She was a big influence on my life and will always treasure her memory.

Robbie was a wonderful person! She was my aunt and I wish things had been different over the years. Unfortunately, our lives can take such crazy paths. I thought of her often and loved her! It makes me happy that she had such great friends and co-workers!! She was loved and loved those around her dearly! She joins her mom, brother, and sister (my mom) and lots of aunts and uncles!! Thank you for everyone's love for Robbie!!
