Garry, while I never got to meet your beautiful wife, I feel I got to know her through you. I am saddened that my family was not there for you when you have always been there for us. You have been a trusted and long time friend and have always gone out of your way to ensure our family future will be secure. If there is anything we can do for you, please do not hesitate to ask. 44 years of marriage give us young people someone to look up to and aspire to be like. Take care my friend and remember we are only a phone call away.
