My memories of Rosie go back to my teenage years. I always thought of her as my big sister as she was always looking out for me especially when it came to making sure she approved of the girls I was dating. I think somehow she knew I would end up with the right person and I did. She approved. Once Brenda and I moved to Nashville we lost contact with most everyone but whenever I ran into someone who knew Rosie I would ask how she was doing. When I think of her, I will always remember her and all of us as young vibrant teenagers and young adults and how after church each Sunday we would either go get ice cream, or to her and Sidney's house for social. She was always so happy, wore a consistent smile and never found fault in anyone. She is now reunited with Sid and someday we all will be reunited again, and who knows, maybe heaven will have a ice cream place where we all can gather again. Love you Rosie Steve Kennedy
