Pop you were such a joy to know. You loved making us laugh. I'll start looking for you to come back as one of my furbabies and when you show up you will be spoiled rotten. May you RIP with our Lord and Savior. You are where you have wanted to go . You will be missed by so many. But one,day we will all be together again.

I'm miss seeing that smile that he always had on his face everytime I saw him. I'm gonna miss him kidding around about different things and our conversations about church. Ruth it's going to be a hard journey continuing on without him, just know you did everything you could to help comfort him and make him feel better. I am so sorry for your loss. Stay strong. I will always be here to help you in any way possible. Your constantly in my thoughts & prayers. The family also. Love you

Your heart must be aching as you adjust to life with your sweet Warner. We have watched your loving care during these last few months of his deteriorating illness; now you face the challenge of life without him. As difficult as this loss must be, may the knowledge that you did everything humanly possible for him be of comfort to you now. You and the family are in our thoughts and prayers... Praying you will find assurance in God's Word, peace in His presence, and comfort in His love. Please accept our heartfelt sympathy. In Christ Who Saves, David and Rita Barton

Brenda and I express our heartfelt sympathy to Ruth, Pat, and all the rest of the family at the loss of Warner. He was our brother in Christ and a good friend. I loved talking to him for we knew so many people in common. I appreciated his interest in the Bible and his constant research into different aspects of the Scriptures. I always enjoyed our Scripture discussions, especially regarding the life beyond this one. I value his book of Biblical Studies which he authored and the copy he gave to me. We shall all miss him. May God bless you and be with you during this time of sorrow and loss. Our prayers are with you. Rod Rutherford, minister of Gatlinburg church of Christ, Gatlinburg, Tennessee.
