Happy Heavenly New Year to my sweet Aunt Kay. I'll always remember you and you will be missed. I loved it when you took me into your attic when I was young and let me pick out something to take home like a piggy bank. I remember the colored popcorn kernels resting in glass jars on your kitchen counter. I remember coming to your house for your yummy homemade ravioli. You were a bright light that will glimmer forever! My love and prayers go out to family.

I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Mrs. Novarese. I know that the age of 94 may seem like a long time to some, but to those who know and love her, it seems like not enough. Ecclesiastes 3:11 says that God "has even put eternity in their heart". This means that Jehovah made us in a way that dying never seems 'natural'. Find comfort in God's word the Bible. Look forward to a time on earth when Kathryn will be the one whom Jesus calls. (John11:43, 44).

Miss Kay was my most favorite client that I have had the extreme pleasure of knowing for 23 years. I told her many times that I aspired to be like her because she lived this life to the fullest of anyone I have ever known in my life! My prayers will be with your family in your time of loss... I know she will always be with you all in spirit. Grace and peace to you all. Lisa Chitwood
