Dear Frank and Margaret, We were so sorry to read of the death of your son, Dean, in the paper on Wednesday. Our thoughts and prayers are with both of you and your family. There is no harder pain in life than the death of a child. When my nephew drowned in 2013 at the age of 40, it was such a blow to my brother and sister-in-law. Please be gentle with yourselves as you navigate this year of your great loss. God will carry you through this, even though we know that this seems impossible to think of at this point. Let us know if there is anything we can do for you. Love, Betty and Jim Pate

Dear Ragghianti Family: It breaks our hearts when death separates us from the ones we love, especially when they are as young as Dean. We are reminded in the Bible that God sees our pain and sorrow and has promised that soon death will be no more.(Revelation 21:4) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again.(John 5:28,29) I hope in the days ahead as you reflect on the life of Dean, and the wonderful memories left behind, that you will also find much comfort in God's promises to us for the near future. I am so sorry for your tragic loss.
