So incredibly sad to hear about the passing of Joe. I roomed with him in college and considered him a very good friend. Time passed and we went out separate ways, but I thought of him often. I'll always remember his sense of humor. I got to spend the night in his Naperville home. We ate at Jordan's and even against everyone's advice, touched the Jordan statue. I told a story today how we visited his sister Julie in Atlanta. My thoughts are with his family.

Just learned about Joe's departure I am sincerely astonished by it. Joe was somewhat younger than me, always cheerful. When we met he welcomed me to Memphis in the way that led for me to find an awesome opportunity of a dream job I had envisaged since a year beforehand while being abroad; I will always keep him in my memories as an angel of sorts in the certainty that he is in God's company. May he rest in peace; my condolences to his family and friends. Luis Huizi

Tara and JoJo, my heart has been shattered for you both. Joe was a wonderful father and best friend. Joe and Tara raised a very sweet young man together and I know Joe will continue to guide Tara and JoJo as they find their new normal here on Earth without him. Joe was a joy to know and he will be deeply missed.

Joe Sprott was one of the most dedicated and loyal people that I've ever met. I had the pleasure of calling him my brother in law. My heart goes out to my sweet nephew Jojo and my sister Tara. Together Joe and Tara have raised a sweet, kind hearted little boy that will forever miss his hero. Joe was planning their move to Denver and we had just locked in a city with a great school district for Jojo, my family and I were so excited that they were finally going to be close and our kids were going to be able to grow up together. I know that Joe will be watching over Jojo as well as my family, and I will see him again one day.

For all who loved Joe, especially his son, my heart aches. He was a nephew for 40 years but he was a good friend for the last 5 and I will miss knowing that a laugh is just a phone call away. I remember my Mother talking about the delight of her new twin grandchildren in her home for the first time, with Joe playing inside one of the kitchen cabinets pulling out pot or pan with abandon. She wouldn't clean the refrigerator door for months (something not like her at all) because there were still visible fingerprints low on the door from her grandchildren. Joe and I connected over the last five years at a level that came, I think, from an unexpected place to us both. While we were both hard workers, we also enjoyed playing with the best of them....especially when it came to music. We compared bands and music genres we either loved or hated.....over a cold beer of course. I will miss you, Joe. Love, Your Aunt Jay

We always thought Joe was a really neat guy! We knew him to be a very thoughtful, friendly man who always started a conversation by asking something he knew was on your mind....your sportsteam, your family, or your hometown news. He seemed to know what you thinking about. And he was sincerely interested and cared. It's no wonder he was very sucessful in his career. He was also very helpful to our family when Terry passed. We grieved together. Joe's memories and humor helped a great deal. Our heartfelt sympathy to Joe Jr. and to all who loved his father.Jeanne,Tom, Steve, Julie and families.

I would like to start by sharing how deep your love for your son, Joseph, runs, Joe. Joseph is the most important thing in your life, and you are an exceptional father who has spent over 12 years raising a fine young man of whom you are beyond proud. This is evident in your involvement in his love of hockey, his band participation, and your ski trip in Denver you have planned for February. You have raised an intelligent, polite, fun to talk to individual...much like yourself.From the moment I met you in 1993, it was evident what a gregarious, lovable, hard-working person you are. If there is fun to be had, or a way to make a situation more bearable, you are on top of it. You never meet a stranger. Your love of music, though we don't always agree on the band(*cough* country *cough*), is a commonality that we share and enjoy together. From the Cranberries at Mud Island, when you showed up in Texas to what turned out to be a very cold, and very rainy event, to our last Law of Nature reunion this April in Starkville, MS – you love to see a great band. I will go see WSP at Red Rocks as many times as you want.Our Mulligan's family is a special bond for which, as life has meandered on, I have never found a replacement. We spent so many nights together serving Starkville, MS, and enjoying the college experience. We took trips to New Orleans, and Naperville, and Memphis. You were there for me after my first job interview out of college. You always cared about what has been going on in my life since.I think the fact that someone has success at a company that spans 17 years says a great deal about their character. The dedication and hard work that it takes to maintain that kind of tenure goes without saying. You are a valued professional and dear friend to many at Tek Services.Love can be stored in a safe place in the pocket of our hearts, but unlike trinkets our love was never forgotten nor misplaced. I am so glad we have reunited as best friends and partners again. You fill up more of my heart than you ever did, and I will hold you there in a special place forever. I love your family like my own, and I will look after them best as I can from near and far away.Every time I hear "Sweet Melissa" I will expect you to message me, as usual. I am your sweet Melissa, always. I love you, Joe.
