We remember Shirley's laughter and how she lit up a room. Joshua loved his "Granma Shirley" as she him, as if a related grandmother. She will be remembered, forever in his heart, being there for him so much, when he was younger. We will remember her, how loving and helpful she was to others. We will always be grateful for her selfless love she showed, all she did, and was to our family. So very blessed to have known her; you are all in our prayers. God Bless You All.
