I was saddened to hear of John's passing. I have one memory of him coming back to visit NE. I was maybe 6 or 7 yrs old and loved his energetic and funny personality...not to forget that contagious Baltensperger smile and twinkle of the eye.

Mom will really miss talking with her Brother John. I loved the stories she told of growing up with him as her closest in age sibling. One story was how Grandma B would give the two of them the job of polishing the wood floors in the octagon farm house. It sounded like a lot of fun! May God comfort you and give peace. Your cousin, Janice (Soderberg) Lehnert
