I have so many memories with my aunt it's hard to choose. She was definitely a one of a kind person! She loved hard and she fought hard. She was the kind of person that you either loved her or hated her. And she was always there for you when you needed her (unless you pissed her off lol). She will be missed by so many and we know she is looking down on us wishing us all the best. We love you Marge!

You're at peace now but oh I hated leaving you yesterday. There are so many things I wish we'd done differently but we knew you loved us all and you can rest in peace knowing how much we loved you. I will miss you until my last breath my blond sister and I'm so grateful I got to spend the time I did with you. You are in the Lord's hand now and always have been but now you know His plan and why your journey happened the way it did. Rest In Peacefully Marge and dance with the angels. You will not be forgotten for you will always be in my heart. I love you and I will miss you everyday of my life. Until we meet again!
