I am so so sorry for your loss. Death is one of the most difficult things to deal with. The bible' s message at Revelation 21:3&4 however, hold out a very comforting promise from God. When you have a moment, please look it up in your own person copy of the bible or the free online bible at JW.org

It has been more that 20 years since I have seen Brian. He & I went to CBHS together and then were room mates during the first year of college. The guy I remember was a happy, generous, kind guy who lit up a room when he entered....an infectious smile and laugh. A solid friend who would give you the shirt off his back. My sincerest condolences to Brian's family. Rest In Peace Brian.

Kelley, Hannah, Haleigh, and Hunter: We send our deepest condolences to you for the loss of Brian in your life. I cannot express how sad I am that I cannot be there to be beside you and let you all know how much I love you and want to be there for you. Your family has always been precious in my heart and always will be. Brian gave us three beautiful and very special gifts in Hannah, Haleigh, and our little man, Hunter. Kelley you have always been so special to me and I am so proud of you for all you do for your family. I know this is so hard but you hang in there. God will give you peace that passeth all understanding. He will comfort you and hold you close when you need him. Always turn to him when you think its too hard or too much. He will never leave you or forsake you. I'm so sorry I cannot come and be with you and the kids. I love you all so much and I am so sad for what you are going thru. You are all in my thoughts and in my prayers each and everyday. We are not sending Flowers but instead going to send money to the HUNTER STURMAN EDUCATION FUND. We hope this helps with Hunter's educational needs. We love you all in Christ...Aunt Julie, Uncle Malcolm, Kaitlyn, and Ryan Osenton
