Dear Katalin Adrianna and Gabby, we love the wonderful pictures of Vlad that show what a wonderful young man he is. He was the most courageous person I have ever met. He showed us all how to live and how to love with his brilliant mind and soul. We are all much richer individuals for having known him. We love you. Lois, Allan and Elise Ruleman

We have been honored to know Vlad for many years. We watched him grow from a shy, five year old into a very intelligent, loving and determined young man with a wonderful sense of humor. Vlad and his family will always be thought of as the "Romanian branch" of our family. We love you, Vlad!

I didn't know Vlad, but my daughter got to know him as she works at St. Jude. It seems that Vlad and his family have touched many lives with his brave fight against this disease, and with the beautiful display of love and commitment shown by his Dad. My most fervent prayers will remain with you all during this time of sadness at his passing. God bless you. Lynn Brauer

I remember the great smile on his face when I gave him the Bob Marley cd and the dread locks. Vlad endured so much pain and suffering. He was very smart and caring. He will always be remembered. He was a true friend. Paul
