There are so many fond memories of my Aunt Sue. From the little house on Getwell to Fairway Towers. She was the best okra cook in the world, not to mention numerous other great dishes. She always had a smile and a uplifting word. She recently sent a loving caring card to my wife who is ill. Aunt Sue always thought of others first.It is with deep regret that I will be unable to travel to share in the celebration of her life.My sympathy to her family. Although you may grieve, it will be much lightned by the fond loving memories you have and the terrific times you had with her. Love, Billy and Sheila
