I owe so much to Valerie. She taught me so much as a technician when I did prn work at P MEC. Her vast knowledge of veterinary medicine and support helped me to finally attain my DVM degree. Thanks Val for not only believing in me but for being such a wonderful friend!

Val, my memory list would be too long and too telling to post but I will never take for granted our weekly conversations and how we promised each other we would only talk not text because it's so disconnecting! Your voice, your laugh our secret and inappropriate jokes will keep me smiling for the rest of my life. I am warm with comfort know you are preparing the party in heaven for us all. To your babies, I promise to always be there for them when they need to hear stories about you. My soul will never be the same this side of heaven. You were my blonde babe! ????????
