Juanita Ennis

MAR 16, 1929 - APR 22, 2014

Juanita Ennis, 85, of Olive Branch, MS, passed away Tuesday April 22, 2014. She was born in Whiteville, TN March 16, 1929. Juanita was a woman with a loving heart who selflessly devoted most of her life taking care of her kids, grandkids, and great grand children. Many people that have come and gone knew Juanita as Mamaw throughout her life. She was an excellent mother to her two sons Richard and David Ennis. She was the worlds greatest grandmother to her three grandchildren Melissa Haynes, Chase Ennis & Brittany Terry. Mamaw was so proud to become a great grandmother to Carson, Cole & Cannon Haynes. Mamaw was a creative woman with making crafts and paintings. She at one time owned her own craft business known as Nita's Crafts & Gifts. She enjoys going to the beach, sitting in the warm sun, having her family around, and her love for her yorkie "Grizzly" was unconditional. Mamaw will be greatly missed by all. Her late husband William L. Ennis and her late son David L. Ennis precede Juanita in death. Juanita is survived by her son and his wife Richard and Kathy Ennis of Millington, TN; her three grandchildren: Melissa and her husband Keith Haynes of Warrenton, VA; Chase Ennis of Olive Branch; MS and Brittany and her husband Brian Terry of Cabot, AR; her great grandchildren Carson, Cole and Cannon Haynes also survive her. A viewing will be held Saturday April 26, 2014 from 12:30 -1:30 followed by a graveside service at Memorial Park on Poplar Ave.
