My deepest and heartfelt sympathy is with the Sterling family, and, may the Lord sustain and comfort you with His PEACE..... Barry was a beloved friend – like a brother. We had much in common even attending rival high schools in Maryland. There was never a dull moment with Barry as he had a vast knowledge on most any subject. I will forever remember and cherish the friendship and good times with Barry until we are reunited in Heaven.David Hill

Our thoughts and prayers are with the Sterling family. I am a former House of Representatives employee – I had the privilege of working with Barry when he was a member there. It was a pleasure to know him and I as so many appreciated the work he did for Tennessee. May God comfort his family as only He can. Gone but not forgotten! Rest in peace Barry. Your friend from the legislature – Frances Warren
