Chuck was one of the nicest people I know. He knew everyone, but was as humble as they get. I spent many days at the farm with him and the fellas just relaxing and listening to music. He was such a special guy that loved everyone and his heart was bigger than that gorgeous smile he always had on his face. I will miss my friend forever. Heaven has a bassist.

Chuck was a very dear friend whom I had grown to appreciate and count on. He bought our prized horse "Sugar" when we moved to the city and his friend bought our other horse and he still has them both to this day. He and I have worked many a hours out on Joel Hemphill's farm doing different projects and I can't imagine working without him here, providing comedy, telling stories and just being part of our little family here. He will be missed greatly – what great talent and ability the Lord blessed him with – what a sweet and caring personality He blessed him with! Rest in peace my friend!
