Anita Seifert

DEC 2, 1944 - JAN 12, 2014

Anita Maloney Seifert, 69, died peacefully in her sleep on January 12, 2014. She is preceded by her parents Lee and Eloise Maloney and survived by her husband Richard; daughters Kelly Sims and husband Dave Sims and Karen Umsted and husband Jay Umsted and 4 beloved grandchildren, Jack, Zoe, Waya and Kelwyn. She was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother and devoted friend. She leaves us all with many cherished memories of her unselfishness, tender heart and kind ways. She was an avid traveler and cruise fanatic. She loved volunteering for the church nursery for over ten years as well as spending time with friends playing bridge and dining together. She especially enjoyed spending time with her family and watching her precious grandchildren grow and develop. We will celebrate her life and memory with a visitation from 6-8pm this Wednesday, January 15th at Memorial Park Funeral Home and Services will be 10AM on Thursday, January 16, 2014 at Bellevue Baptist Church. In lieu of flowers, any memorials please send to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Richard, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. It was a privilege to get to know you and Anita through our Faith in the Face of Cancer support group last year at West. Both of you were such an inspiration and encouragement to all of us. You will remain in my prayers.

Anita was a ray of light, even in the midst of suffering and uncertainty. What a privilege it is to have known her, even for a short time. The love in her heart couldn't be masked by disease. What comfort we have, knowing that this dear one's journey has only begun, and that one day, we will see her shining face again! Much love and prayers to you, Richard, and your dear family!
