To Tina & family I so sorry for your loss. He was a great friend of my that I enjoyed talking to all the time. The drive home now is longer annd not as much enjoyable. We had a lot in common between both being military brats, both loving RC planes, living in Europe and history. I know this is part of life but still stinks. But the hurt will grow smaller and all the greats things that you shared with Art will made it better. Gary
