Although I only had the pleasure of meeting Azalee and her mom Amanda once they left a lasting impression on me and my children. We have prayed for Gods healing, grace, mercy, and love to surround Azalee since we crossed paths. Azalee had the most beautiful smile and was most definitely a fighter. She truly was a little angel sent by God to make a HUGE impression on the lives of many. She is smiling down on us now as God holds her and rocks her in his arms, she is no longer in pain, she has a whole new body that is free of cancer! Sending prayers during this time and continually from now until eternity.....
