I'll always remember talking at the kitchen table with Aunt Marge and listening to family stories that even when I was an adult I'd never heard before. So why is there different last names in the family??? I love her and I love all my TN family and I miss you! Polly

Dear Family, I wish to express my sincere condolences over the loss of your love one, Mrs. Bond. At times like these we are deeply saddened. Death is unnatural touching all our lives. I've lost both my parents and my brother last June. Although we miss them, we found great comfort in knowing that it wasn't God's purpose for people to die in the beginning. It was to live forever in paradise on earth. Even now he wants us to obey him and live forever. John 6:40 says: "This is the will of my father that everyone that beholds the son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life and I will resurrect him at the last day." And Psalm 37:29 says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth and will reside forever upon it." So God sent his son Jesus to die so that all those expressing faith in him may have eternal life. So we now have the wonderful hope of the resurrection. Acts 24:15 says: "...there is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous." So our love ones will return to a beautiful paradise earth where suffering, crime, sickness, and death will no longer be. So as of now our love ones are resting peacefully awaiting the resurrection. I'm so sorry about your loss. I'm sure everyone that knew and loved Mrs. Bond will miss her dearly. So may Jehovah, the God of all comfort give your family the strength to endure. With my Deepest Sympathy, Mrs. Servelia Smith

Margie was my mother's best friend all through their adult life. She was a second mother to me. Each time my mom, Jane, had a baby, I stayed with Margie. I loved Margie very much. We enjoyed sewing together and always celebrated our August birthdays with a lunch, as well as most holidays. She was a kind, understanding, important influence to me. I will miss her the rest of my life. Charlotte Barden

I have so many wonderful memories of Mrs. Bond. She always welcomed me in their home when Bonnie and I were at Lausanne together. If Bonnie wasn't at my house, I was at hers...she was a strong lady and loved her family fiercely. I am so glad that The Lord let my path cross with her and her family... Your family are in my thoughts and prayers! Jane Bryan Morris
