I was honored to work with Chris Patrick during the late 70's and the 80's at Cosmopolitan. She was one of the finest women I ever encountered. Her compassion for the families we served and her love for her fellow staff members was immense. She truly embodied the way every Christian should be. I will always honor her memory with a smile and with thanksgiving. She really made my life better. My prayers are with each of you. Al Jackson Augusta, Georgia
