Dear Jean, You don't know me, but I worked with Wain many years back at Hunter Fan. He was a fine person to know. I remember how he'd talk about you and Phil. His face would light up and anyone could see how much he loved both of you. Today I got to thinking about the folks I worked with at Hunter, wondering who was gone and who was still with us, so I did a search on some of them. I sure hated learning that the world has lost both Wain and Nick Leoncavello. Two very fine gentlemen. Sincerely, Hazel Williams

Dear Jean and Phil, It was with great sadness Mary and I heard of Wain's passing. He and I spent a considerable amount of time together all over Asia on behalf of Hunter over the years and I enjoyed our time together immensely. Wain was a gentleman in every sense of the word. He always had a smile on his face and nice things to say about everyone he came into contact with. I will never forget playing in the same foursome with Wain and Phil at Kentucky Lakes when Wain got his first hole in one. It was great that Phil was there to witness it first hand. Please accept our sincere condolences and know that you and your entire family are in our prayers. Jim and Mary Barrett

Death is an enemy that strikes at any time, any where, and anyone, leaving pains and emptiness in our hearts. Take courage and look to the time when all these things will be no more. This is confirmed in the Holy Bible at Revelation 21:4. I am so sorry for your loss.
