Doris Fry posted:

When I think of Honey, I see a bundle of energy that never stopped. She was always inviting folks to services, greeting everyone, until you finally had to say "Honey, go sit down, it's time to start". Her home had an open door for the teens and she was instrumental in getting us active again with our church work. Those chili suppers with a plate full of brownies were common for the kids. She was loved and will be truly missed. Doris & E. Y. Fry
