Kay, I'm so sorry to hear about Richard. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I'll never forget all the great fun we used to have at A.B. Dick. I always laugh when I think about that guy he knew that always said, "What about it, Wicky Woscoe.". Love you, Kay.

I am truly sorry for your loss. There is a lot of suffering caused by death today. It is comforting to know according to the scriptures that God is taking note. An encouraging thought is found at Revelations 21:3,4. There it states that God will wipe out ever tear and that death will be no more. It is also comforting to consider that God cares for each of us therefore John 5:28,29 speaks of a time soon when a resurrection to life will occur. Further Psalms 37:29 indicates a marvelous hope as well. I hope that you will have a moment to reflect on the comforting information found in the above scriptures.
